The Defense Language Transformation Roadmap:

Uniform Tuition Assistance – TA Policy

The DoD Instruction 1322.25, "Voluntary Education Programs," implements policy and establishes guidelines for the DoD tuition assistance policy. The Defense Language Transformation Roadmap, January 2005, mandate has increased opportunities for foreign language education as a matter of strategic interest and national security.

Tuition Assistance under section 2007 of Title 10, United States Code may be used for foreign language education courses during Service member's off-duty periods.

- a. Foreign language course permitted under this provision are limited to those identified by the Under Secretary of Defense (Plans) as a strategic stronghold or immediate investment language. Dominant-in-the-force languages and languages deemed by the Department as already having sufficient strategic capability will not be funded under section 2007.

- b. Courses must be offered by postsecondary institutions accredited by a nationally or regionally accredited body recognized by the Department of Education. Non-academic language training and immersion learning on a CD from vendors will not be funded under this provision.
- c. Foreign language courses do not have to be part of a postsecondary degree plan.
- d. Tuition assistance will not exceed, and shall be provided in accordance with current DoD Uniform Tuition Assistance Policy caps and ceilings. All course work will be included in a Service member's annual ceiling.
- e. All Commissioned Officers on active duty or full time National Guard duty will incur the active duty service obligation mandated under section 2007 of Title 10, United States code and as currently set forth in DoD policy, Assistant Secretary of Defense memorandum Subject: "Uniform Tuition Assistance Policy", November 2001.
